The Strange and Fatal Disease which has Counted Hundreds of Victims in Southern States.

A Journalistic Tragedy in the Golden City---The Outcome of a Doubtful Article.

Narrow Escape of Several Inmates from a Burning Building---The General News.

A Curious and Fatal Disease.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Nov. 20.—The counties suffering from an unknown and fatal disease, before reported, are, viz: Lee, Dickinson and the edge of Scott in Virginia, and Harland, Lee and adjoining counties in Kentucky. Owing to their isolated position particulars are hard to obtain. Hundreds have died and allowing for exaggeration the mortality is large. Postal Clerk Wells, who has just arrived from that section, after having had the disease, gives a sad account of the epidemic. He attributes it to mineral poison in the drought dried wells and says a strong and disagreeable mineral taste like copperas exists. Although the disease is unknown the people call it cholera, and were it so it could not be more dreaded or disastrous.

A like scourge visited this section in 1854. Cattle are also dying in some sections. General rains have fallen in that state for two days past and probably the drought is over there.

The Swaim Case.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Upon the opening session of the Swaim court martial the judge advocate informed the court that he had been served by the defense with a document addressed to A. E. Bateman in the nature of a notice to him to produce certain documents. He said he could not be called upon to act as a medium of communication with Bateman being here solely as the representative of the United States. General Grosvenor, of the counsel for the defense, said they desired by this proceeding to get at the books and papers which lie back of this proceeding. The defense would ultimately demand the original documents in this case, when testimony should be sought to be brought in touching certain financial transactions between Bateman & Company and General Swaim. They would insist that whenever it is alleged stock has been purchased for Swaim, that evidence of it should be produced. He would, however, change the address of the notice and present it properly to the judge advocate and the court. He thereupon changed the address on the document which is a formal notice to produce in court the certificate of purchase of certain shares of stock by Bateman & Co. on Swaim's account.

Fires.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Nov. 20.—The Brickett building comprising several stores in the basement, the Craighton house, Mrs. Clark proprietress, and several boarding houses in rooms above, burned this morning. The fire originated in the hotel and quickly spread to the roof. The four stories above the hotel had twenty-nine inmates who barely escaped with their lives. Several tied their bed clothes together and came down on the outside of the building by these means. One man was badly cut by sliding down the telephone wire. A baby was tied up in a sheet and thrown to fireman Kache. Gilmartin and Josie Branahan jumped from the fourth story window. The Gilmartin girl received fatal injuries and the other girl was seriously hurt. Losses $21,000; partly insured.

DETROIT, Nov. 20.—A fire in the supply office of the Calumet and Hecla mine, at Calumet, Lake Superior, is reported to have caused a loss of $20,000.

The Cattlemen.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 20.—At the opening of the fourth day of the national convention of cattlemen the chair announced the appointment of a committee of conference with a similar committee appointed by the Chicago live stock association.

A constitution and by laws were adopted. The first meeting of the association will be held to-morrow, at which time officers will be elected.

A resolution was passed memoralizing congress to open and maintain a trail from the Red river to the northern boundary line.

The Friends of the Lower Class.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 20.—At the convention of the American Humane association this morning a communication from Hon. Chauncey F. Black, of York, Pa., containing a copy of the resolutions introduced in congress by Hon. James H. Hopkins relating to the transportation of live stock was read and on motion it was resolved to memorialize congress to pass the act. The convention then adjourned.

Give Everybody a Whirl.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—It is now believed that the grand jury will indict the backers, seconds and others who are concerned in the Sullivan-Greenfield prize fight.

Another San Francisco Tragedy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—M. H. De Young, proprietor of the Chronicle, was shot at 5:30 o'clock last evening by Adolph Spreckels, a son of the Claus Spreckels, the Hawaiian sugar king. The shooting took place in the business office of the Chronicle. Spreckels fired twice. The first shot took effect in the left arm a little below the elbow, and the second in the left shoulder. The shooting is the outcome of an article published in the Chronicle last Sunday morning respecting the affairs of the Hawaiian Commercial Sugar company. Spreckels was arrested and taken to the station house.

DeYoung, who was shot last night by young Spreckles, passed a quiet night, free from pain. The doctors purpose making a second effort this afternoon to extract the remaining bullet but will probably defer the attempt to as late an hour in the day as possible in the hope that the bullet may move itself and give clearer indications of its exact position. Less danger is anticipated from this bullet than from the effects of the one extracted. The shoulder blade was slightly shattered and broken pieces remain within the wound. It is feared the pieces may induce supperation and high fever.

The Queen---A Celebrated Case.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The queen returned to Windsor Castle from Barmah to-day in excellent health.

The suit for breach of promise brought by Miss Fortescue, the actress, against Lord Garmoyle, the oldest son of Earl Carins, was begun to-day. The court room was crowded with leaders of fashionable society and stage celebrities. Sir Henry James, the attorney general, who appeared for the defendant, stated that he was willing to accept a verdict of £1,000 damages against his client.

F. Herr, Miss W. T. Cutter, Mrs. D. G. King, Mrs. R. H. Jennine, vice president, Mrs. Lily Stone, chairman executive committee; Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, foreign corresponding secretary; Henry B. The Kansas Temperance Union Meets at Topeka.

TOPEKA, Ks., November 19.—The State Temperance Union met in this city to-day. Ex-Governor St. John and wife were in attendance during the afternoon. The committee on resolutions made a report, reciting that the principles of the union had been emphatically endorsed by the people of Kansas in the overwhelming defeat of the present occupant of the executive chair. They condemned his unlawful usurpation of the law and exercise of his executive clemency in behalf of the connected saloonkeepers. They congratulate the Prohibitionists in voting at the recent election on the growth of the temperance sentiment and recommend a series of resolutions, the more important of which are as follows:

Resolved, That the Democratic party of Kansas, by adopting an anti-prohibition platform and making an avowedly anti-prohibition campaign, have made it impossible for the consistent Prohibitionists to give it their support so long as it retains its present attitude.

Resolved, That the Republican party of Kansas, by adopting the platform that was satisfactory to the mass of Prohibitionists, and elected state officers and a legislature pledged to require the enforcement of the constitution to the end, that the full effects of prohibition may be realized, has done all that is reasonable for the Prohibitionits to expect and is now entitled to a cordial support of the temperance men.

Resolved, That as long as the attitude of the two leading parties in this matter remains unchanged, we are unalterably opposed to the formation or maintenance of an Independent Prohibition party, and we cordially invite those who have separated from us to return and act with us in the future.

The resolutions were passed without opposition, except the last named, which was bitterly opposed by St. John. After a long debate its final clause was amended to read as follows: "We cordially invite all to join us in the work."

A Terrible Deed.

NEW YORK, November 19.—Louis and Edward Gueld, Frenchmen, aged thirty-two and thirty-six years, arrived here Sunday last and went to an emigrant boarding house on Greenwich street, where they engaged rooms. This afternoon Louis shot his brother in the head, inflicting a mortal wound and then killed himself. The shooting occurred in the bed-room. When the inmates of the house rushed up they Louis dead and Edward staggering around the room with a frightful wound in his head. Edward said, pointing to his dead brother, "he did it."

At dinner, a few hours previous, both were apparently on friendly terms. While they were eating, Lewis, addressing his brother, said: "It's all right, if we haven't any money; these will settle us," exhibiting a revolver and two cartridges. The brothers came from Canton, Stark county, O., and left there with the intention of returning to their native place. Sunday last Edward went out with $155 in his pockets, got drunk and lost the money. The thoughts of the loss of the money affected his reason and led to the double shooting. The men had been drinking much the past two or three days and had become so boisterous that they had been told to leave, by the landlord. A letter from Virgil G. Gilmour, of Gilmour & Co., bankers, of Cincinnati, was found on on the body of Louis, in which mention was made of drafts and money in favor of both brothers. There was also found an inventory of the estate, part of which both had become heirs to. Naturalization papers were found in Louis' pockets, granted to him by the probate court of Stark county, Ohio. He had made a boast Sunday that he had only been four years in this country, been made a citizen and had been paid $20 for voting for Blaine at the last election. Edward was visited by the coroner at the hospital, to whom he said that he and Louis had left Louisville on Saturday last. The doctors say it is doubtful if Edward can live.

Restoring Rates.

CHICAGO, November 19.—A meeting of the general passenger agents of east bound trunk lines was held here to-day, for the purpose of considering the question of the restoration of passenger rates to the seabord The form of the agreement presented provided for the restoration: for a forfeit of $500 by each road, to be put into the hands of a joint agent, and fixed the penalty at $100 for each ticket sold at cut rates or found in scalper's hands. It had been charged by the other lines that the Baltimore & Ohio was a stumbling block in the way of restoration, but it was found that the representative of that road was willing to restore the rates. Additional clauses looking to the strengthening of the agreement were discussed without dissent.

Pugilistic Troubles.

NEW YORK, November 19.—John L. Sullivan and Alfred Greenfield, principals in last night's glove contest; appeared in the Jefferson Market police court this morning, accompanied by a crowd of sports, to answer to the charge on which they were arrested last night—for engaging in a prize fight. Sullivan looked placid and happy. Greenfield's face appeared a little swollen and near his left eye there was a slight cut.

The affidavit of Chief-of Police Walling was read, in which he accused the defendants of having participated in a prize fight and having caused the unlawful assemblage of people together for an illegal purpose. The accused were held in $300 bail each to appear for examination this afternoon. The bondsmen of last night renewed the bail and the pugilists and crowd left the court. The men were subsequently arrested and arraigned in the court of general sessions, an indictment being found against them by the grand jury. It charged them with committing a misdemeanor, viz: "Engaging in a fight without weapons." The counsel for the accused said the clients plead not guilty and asked for an early trial. The bail was fixed at $1,000 in each case, and was furnished by the backers of the pugilists.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 19. —Admiral Porter, in his annual report, says that the comparison of expenditures in foreign navies with our own will go far to put a stop to the cry that extravagance has been shown in the administration of its financial affairs, and will show the necessity of our doing something towards building a navy, if we want to keep the spirit of the age and hold ourselves ready to maintain the respect of foreign nation. Admiral Porter submits what he thinks the government ought to do in the next two years:

First—Complete the unfinished monitors, and arm them with heavy rifled guns, making them rams as far as the models will permit.

Second—Appropriate the money for all vessels that were proposed to congress last winter.

Third—Build as a commencement four of the heaviest monitors of great endurance and speed, each to carry four six-inch rifles in the turrets.

Fourth—To build twenty torpedo boats, not less than 100 tons each, with the speed of twenty knots.

Fifth—One cruising iron-clad, not less than 4,000 tons.

Sixth—Have all our ships over 1,250 tons supplied with torpedoes, fitted with noiseless condensing engines, so that they cannot be heard approaching the enemy.

The United States and Haytian international commission, comprising Hon. William Strong, ex-justice of the United States supreme court, as arbitrator, and W. B. Peddrick as joint secretary, met in the state department to-day, in pursuance of a previous agreement between Secretary Frelinghuysen and the Haytian minister, for the purpose of hearing the claims of the two cousins of the United States, Antonio Pelletier and A. H. Lazure, against the government of Hayti. The United States was represented by Solicitor General Phillips; the government of Hayti represented by ex-Governor Boutwell and Marquis De Chamberin. The case first taken up was that of Pelletier. A formal statement of the claims was made by his counsel. The claimant, as muster of the barge William, was, it is alleged, illegally arrested at Fort Liberte, in Hayti, March 18, 1861, tried upon the charge of piracy, found guilty and sentenced to be shot. His sentence was afterward commuted to imprisonment for five years, but his vessel and cargo were condemned and confiscated. For this loss, with accured interest, and for sufferings and injuries which he experienced at the hands of Haytian officials, he claims $2,446,000. After hearing his statement of the case the commission adjourned to meet Wednesday November 26th, for the purpose of taking depositions.

TOLEDO, November 19.—A fire occurred this evening in the Brush electric light works, damaging the machinery and building from $1,000 to $12,000. The loss is covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown. It is supposed to have been caused by friction in the shafting.

Chairman Jones Returns Home.

PITTSBURG, November 19.—Chairman Jones, of the National Republican committee, arrived home to-night and in an interview emphatically denied the reports of the committee's indebtedness. He says before leaving New York last night he drew checks for every dollar owed by the committee. The Delmonico dinner was paid for by private individuals.

Boiler Explosion on Shipboard.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., November 19.—The steamer Captain Sam, plying between this city and Selma, exploded its boiler last night at Hodnot's bar. About twenty-five people were on the boat. Captain English was hurt and several of the crew. Five people are missing, including the little daughter of the captain.

Later news is that one of the passengers, D. McNeilly, who had both legs broken, died to-day.

A Brilliant Affair.

COLUMBUS, November 19.—Col. S. H. Church, superintendent of transportation of the Pan Handle railroad, and Miss Margaret Joyce, daughter of John Joyce, were married to-night at the residence of the bride's parents in this city. The wedding was a brilliant [illegible] prominent social event of the season. A large number of guests were present, many of them from abroad. Governor Hoadly and staff, in uniform, of which the groom is a member, attended. The bridal party left the city at midnight for a trip to Denver and other points in Colorado.

Water Famine.

LYNCHBURG, Va., November 19.—A tale of deep distress comes from Buchanan, Wise and Dickinson counties occupying an isolated portion of the extreme western limit of Virginia. For some weeks a fatal disease has been prevalent there and there has been a number of deaths of a terrible nature. The disease is yet undefined, but it is supposed to arise from the poisonous water. The drouth there for months has nearly dried all the streams, springs and wells, and it is supposed that the water left is impregnated with mineral poison. A reliable correspondent tells a pitiful story and says in some cases as many as four corpses were found in a single house.

Failures.

NEW YORK, November 19.—Siendenbach, Schwab & Co., large woolen merchants, failed in September, 1883, and made an assignment to William Sulzbacher. Shortly afterward a number of creditors began action in the superior court to set aside the assignment upon the ground of the fraud claims involved in the action, which aggregate more than $200,000. The court rendered a decision today in favor of the plaintiffs, declaring the assignment fraudulent and void, and decreeing that a receiver of the estate of the insolvent firm should be appointed. The court said it was in evidence of the members of the firm that they had drawn money out of the firm a few days before the assignment.

James McBandon, importer of books, made an assignment with preferences amounting to $28,000.

PUT YOUR HAND

In a vice, turn the screw until the pain is all you can possibly bear, and that's Rheumatism; turn the screw once more, and that's Neuralgia. Such was the definition of these two diseases given his class by a Professor in a medical college, and he added: "Gentlemen, the medical profession knows no certain cure for either." The latter statement is no longer true, for it has been proved time and again that

ATHLO-PHOROS

WILL CURE BOTH!

C. F. Tilton, Freeport, Ill., Engineer on C. & N. W. Ry., writes:

"Have been troubled with Rheumatism fifteen years, and have been confined to the house four months at a time. Have used two bottles of ATHLOPHOROS and seem to be entirely cured. I cannot say too much for the medicine."

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us, as directed.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

Local, State and National Chatter of the Past Present and Future of the Political Field.

From the Chicago News.

For of all sad words of tongue or pen,
The saddest are these from the Widow Ben:
"By the great burned spoon I'm left again!"

Huntington News: "Miss Ella Johnson still wears the blonde hair she bet on the election, should Ella marry, to whom would that hair belong, her husband or the other fellow?"

A prominent prohibitionist of the state declares that his party is working vigorously, preparing for the campaigns of 1886 and 1888. They will soon increase the capital of the Monitor-Journal.

Secretary Mitchner, of the republican state central committee, says the Indianapolis News, has it all figured out in advance how the republicans are to sweep the earth four years hence. Says he: "We will be in better shape in 1888. We are through with our 'isms.' They beat us this year, and we are rid of some of our great men, our Beechers, George W. Curtises and Conklings, and we know just where we stand." Mr. Michner, it will be remembered, had the situation down very fine just prior to the recent election.

When the 4th of March comes Grover Cleveland will lack fourteen days of being forty-eight years old. Only one younger man has been inaugurated president, and that is U. S. Grant, who lacked some six weeks of being forty-seven years old when he entered the White House. Franklin Pierce was three months over forty-eight, and Arthur and Garfield were each a trifle less than fifty. All the other presidents have been older, William Henry Harrison, with his sixty-eight years, being the oldest of them all at taking the oath of office.

A story is told of a bargain between a stock buyer and a Steuben county farmer. The farmer made a proposition to the stockman that in the event of Blaine's election, he was to pay him (the farmer) a certain sum for eleven head of cattle, which the other desired to purchase, and if Cleveland was elected he was to have the stock as a gift. The offer was readily accepted and the stockman felt so certain o the cattle that he wagered $50 with a friend that he would win. The result is not just as the farmer might have wished it, but then he will have that many less head to winter.

The Secret Societies.

Yesterday in the annual session of Odd Fellows at Indianapolis important reports were made.

The treasurer, Theodore P. Haughey, in his report, showed that the total assets of the grand lodge were $47,506.37. His financial exhibit was substantially the same as that of the secretary.

The grand encampment, I. O. O. F., after the election of officers yesterday afternoon, adopted the amendment to the constitution proposed at the communication last year, striking out the words "worthy, most worthy, most excellent and right worthy," wherever they occur and abolishing these terms entirely.

The board of directors of the Odd Fellows Mutual Aid association met last evening, and received the report of John W. McQuiddy, the secretary, which showed the following results for the year ending November 1:

First division—Members, 2,660; deaths, 24, as against 37 the previous year. Balance in treasury on last report, $4,512.51; receipts during the year, $89,822.37; expenditures, $76,126.67; balance on hand, $18,008.21. Permanent fund, $25,973.96. Assets, $26,604.46; liabilities, $7,500; resources to pay liabilities, $95,954,26, which, deducting liabilities, gives a net fund of $28,454.26. Benefits paid in twelve years, $769,792.73.

Second division—Members, 1,493; deaths, 17. Balance in treasury last report, $6,646.61; receipts during the year, $18,301.55; expenditures, $17,794.51; balance on hand, $7,153.65. Permanent fund, $9,603.30; assets, $9,797.30; liabilities, $4,000; resources to pay liabilities, $16,680.70, which, deducting liabilities, gives a net fund of $12,680.70. Benefits paid in eleven years, $88,779.09.

The sum of $858,571.82 has been paid by the two divisions in death benefits in twelve years, and the cost of management has been 10.56 per cent. of the receipts.

The following officers have been elected:

THE COURT HOUSE.

The next regular term of commissioners' court will open December 1.

Martha Christie was divorced from her husband, George Christie, by Judge O'Rourke.

The grand jury finished their deliberations this morning and were discharged until further notice. Ed Casey and Ed Smith were indicted for burglariously entering the Harmon house, and indictments were returned for petit larceny and grand larceny but arrests have not been made. In their report the jurymen urge that the jail be immediately cleaned and the old bedding replaced. They report Sheriff Nelson's facilities for guarding the jail entirely adequate and commend his management so far. He was in possession of the jail just two days when they visited it.

George T. Banton has sued R. W. Banton and others for partition of real estate.

Wm. H. Habecher has proceeded against Almon C. Whiting to recover $600 on a mechanic's lien.

A suit has been entered in the superior court by Henry Hilgeman vs. Andrew R. Wakefield and Clara A. Wakefield, for foreclosure of a mortgage of $119.15.

The jury in the case of Joyce vs. Stayner, on change of venue from Steuben county, disagreed. The amount involved is about $300 and the costs amount to about $600. The case has had three trials and has also been through the supreme court.

The Little River ditch cases, numbering thirty-four, are set for hearing on the 24th inst. in the superior court, but it is probable that they will not come up for trial before January, as Judge Hench is anxious to arrange the docket and to dispose of all cases at issue as speedily as possible.

The last will of Emeline Stewart has been recorded in the clerk's office and admitted to probate. She bequeathed all her property to her husband, Asbury Stewart, and appoints him executor.

L. M. Jones subdivides 1¼ acres lying north of Wayne street and west of the land of Martin Schaick, west of canal street, into lots numbered from 1 to 10 inclusive.

Permits to wed have been granted to George H. Goegline and Henriette Bischoff, Jacob Gushing and Emma Newhaus and Theodore O. Gotsch and Alice Carrie Johnson.

This morning Judge Hench, of the superior court, granted a divorce on the petition of Belle M. Jones from Maurice L. Jones. The plaintiff alleged cruel and inhuman treatment, that he refused to live with her and accused her falsely of infidelity. The wife was given the custody of the infant child and also alimony in the sum of $600, the amount being agreed upon by the parties. Mr. Jones is the photographer.

The transfers in the city recorded yesterday and to-day are as follows: M. V. B. Spencer to K. J. Bauer, east half of lot 31, Baker's addition, $1,700. Date of deed, October 27, 1884.

Charles E. Bond et al. to Charles F. Reeps, lot 8, Lumbard's second addition, $150. Date of deed, November 13, 1884.

Jesse L. Williams to William A. Diffendorfer, lots 156 and 157 Williams' addition, $1,600. Date of deed, November 18, 1884.

Ann E. Sale to Francis L. Brown, lot 128 and west half of lot 129, Rockhill's addition, $7,500. Date of deed, November 18, 1884.

Francis L. Brown to John W. Sale, same property, same consideration.

Amelia Woehnker to John H. Pranger, lot 32, College addition, $1,500. Date of deed, November 18, 1884.

Ellen B. Mudge to Ernst A. Ehle, lots 51 and 52 Fairfield's addition, $900. Date of deed, Nov. 14, 1884.

Christian Hartman to Charlotte Hartman, lot 89 Edsall's addition, deed by court. Date of deed, Nov. 18, 1884.

John Nolan to John C. Heller, lot 90 Hamilton's second addition, $1. Quit claim. Nov. 19, 1884.

John C. Heller to Ann Nolan by quit claim, the same.

David Creamer to G. J. and E. Platter, lot 10 Siemon's subdivision, $300.

Sufferers from nervousness, early decay, etc., if you value life avoid advertising doctors and medicines that act on the liver and kidneys. Be not deceived by the many bogus certificates of cures from paid or imaginary persons. If weakness of the sexual system is the cause of your distress, Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla will strengthen the parts affected, stop the drain, quiet the nerves, produce dreamless slumber and allow you to regain perfect health. It has cured thousands, and will cure you, for, by purifying the blood and strengthening every weak portion of the body it removes every symptom of distress.

The building committee of the First Presbyterian church will hold an important meeting at the Aveline house parlors to-morrow night.

Tired, Languid, Dull,

Exactly expresses the condition of thousands of people at this season. The depressive effect of warm weather and the weak condition of the body can only be corrected by the use of a reliable tonic and blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Why suffer longer when a remedy is so close at hand? Take Hood's Sarsaparilla now. It will give you untold wealth in health, strength and energy.

The funeral of Jack Swain will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of his mother, 73 DeWald street.

This evening occurs the marriage of Theodore G. Gotsche and Miss Carrie Johnson. Rev. H. G. Sauer will perform the ceremony. THE SENTINEL sends congratulations to the young people in advance.

Some one stole a valuable dog from a farmer named Geisdorfer the other day and the ruralist wanted the thief arrested. He was informed it was not theft under the Indiana law to steal a canine as the tax was levied to discourage the keeping of the animals.

D. L. Slataper the retiring road master of the Pittsburg has an elegant residence near the new Pittsburg yards. He purchased considerable property, put houses on it and then disposed of the platted ground to employes under him. Some of them want to sell at a great reduction from the original price.

The Barlow and Wilson minstrels play here to-morrow night. Barlow is a great Fort Wayne favorite and his temperance speech, during the revival at the Academy years ago, is remembered as the cleverest ever heard. Billy Rice is not with the show, but his place is filled and a strong party will greet the Temple audience.

The Hanlons and their party gave the absurdity "Le Voyage en Suisse" to an appreciative assembly at the Temple last night. The stage used in the first act refused to go to pieces and the effect was somewhat marred. The Hanlons can please and put just enough pantomime in the play to catch on. The male support is fair and the two ladies with the party are useful. The Hanlons used to travel with a circus and do a great trapeze act.

An artificial lake has been constructed on the suburban farm of Mr. J. H. Bass.

Miss Dainty will give recitations during the production of "A Mountain Pink" to-night.

The petitioning of the Wabash receivers for permission to pay the interest on certain bonds of the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago division is believed to mean that portion of the road north of Peru is to be abandoned. At best matters are badly mixed up, and the belief is gaining ground that the Wabash has outgeneraled the innocent I., P. & C. bondholders, and that Wm. Cutting has within the last few days disposed of his interest in the road.

During the year ending October 1, small pox prevailed in nineteen counties of the state and there were ninety-four deaths—an average of five to each infected district. Excluding Marion county, the average was only three. Diphtheria prevailed in seventy-two counties, with a mortality of 288, making an average of three and a sixth. Scarlet fever prevailed in sixty-two counties, with a mortality of 173.

No little excitement was created at Lafayette Saturday by the arrival of Samuel Hollingsworth, a bicyclist, from Kokomo. He left that place at 6:30 o'clock in the morning and arrived at Lafayette, a distance of forty-five miles, at 10:30 o'clock, just four hours. After a short rest he returned home. He rode on a wager that he could make the round trip between 6:30 o'clock and sundown. He probably won, with several hours to spare.

In speaking of the session of the Sanitary convention, the Lafayette Journal says: "The address of welcome, which was delivered by Professor Smart, though brief, was full of wit and wisdom, and his happy hits were fully appreciated by the audience. He especially praised the medical gentlemen for their disinterestedness in concerting measures for their prevention of disease, where, as we all know, the less prevalent disease becomes, the less need we have of physician's services."

Henry B. Hess, who resides near North Webster, in this county, says the Warsaw Times, brought to this office a stone ring that was found on his farm under a black walnut stump that was about four and a half feet in diameter. The ring was found four weeks ago last Sunday, and had been whittled out of soft stone. In pulling out the stump the ring was found under one of the roots. It is for a large sized finger and the peculiarity and interest centers in the fact that it bears the date 1621. If it was really made at that time it is quite a valuable relic.

Rev. Sauer, of the St. Paul's Lutheran church, will lecture to-night in the hall of the German Lutheran Library association, it being one of the regular course of lectures.

Joseph Gangel, the Fairfield avenue saloon keeper who shot at a belligerent patron, was discharged by the grand jury. They could not find proof enough for an indictment.

Jacob R. Rittinger was, this morning, commissioned by C. M. Dawson as his deputy. Mr. Bittinger is a valuable man in the position and Mr. Dawson's choice is commendable.

Attention is directed to the change of the Fruit house advertisement in another column. This popular place, always ready to give their customers the advantage of low prices, makes some deep cuts.

In this state alone not less than one hundred persons are killed every year by railroad trains. Of all those so killed more than four-fifths have no connection with the roads. They are persons trying to get on or off moving trains or crossing in front of the engine, or walking along the track.

William Boyle will be one of the first prisoners tried in the circuit criminal court, for the murder of Casey, a fellow tramp, at Monroeville. A morning paper says Boyle would have dangled but for the clemency of Governor Porter. Judge Hench granted Boyle a new trial.

The Jeffersonian club met last night, with President Montgomery Hamilton in the chair. Invitations to go to Cleveland, Portland, Toledo and a dozen other cities were read and discussed. At length a motion to go to Cleveland next Saturday prevailed. A committee of seven was appointed to arrange for a special train and cheap transportation. It is estimated that 150 will visit the Forest City.

Intelligent people have quit taking bitters and mineral poisons, have quit doctoring kidneys and liver, nerves and brain, have quit using alcoholic poisons and narcotic drugs; have quit poisoning their system with quack nostrums, and now keep themselves and families in perfect health by occasionally using the only perfect blood purifier and true strengthener of weak portions of the body, known far and wide as Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. Any druggist will get it for you.

The work of laying water supply pipes to the Rudisill pool will be completed this week, but the basin will not be completed until later.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." It is also the price, of perfect health—that boon which all seek. It is not possible to have perfect health if the bowels are not regular in their action. Diarrhœa and constipation are equally destructive of health and comfort. Dr. Peter Tracy, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "For constipation, when used according to your printed directions, I prefer Mishler's Herb Bitters to any other remedy."

Hardened Liver.

Five years ago I broke down with kidney and liver complaint and rheumatism.

Since then I have been unable to be about at all. My liver became hard like wood; my limbs were puffed up and filled with water.

All the best physicians agreed that nothing could cure me. I resolved to try Hop Bitters; I have used seven bottles; the hardness has all gone from my liver, the swelling from my limbs, and it has worked a miracle in my case; otherwise I would have been now in my grave. J. W. Morey, Buffalo, Oct. 1, 1881.

Poverty and Suffering.

"I was dragged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring.

I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of pastor, I commenced using Hop Bitters, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have seen a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost. I know it."—A WORKINGMAN.

In is currently reported and without a shadow of denial, that one of our leading merchants has adopted FREE TRADE principles in his business to the extent that he will not admit of any PROTECTION in the way of an excessive Tariff on his goods, and as a substantial evidence of his sincerity PROTECTS the CONSUMER by entirely ignoring the tariff, and marking his goods at 20 per cent. below the customers prices for cash. BRUEBACH-BIEWEND.

Marriage of Miss Eugenie Bruebach and Henry E. Biewend, of Warsaw—Quite a Suprise to Their Friends.

"Last Tuesday evening," says the Warsaw Times, "Mr. Henry E. Biewend, well and favorably known to the people of this place, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Eugenie Bruebach, of Fort Wayne, by the Rev. Thomas Boyd. The fair bride has been a resident of this place for a year or more past, and has many acquaintances here, besides a host of them at Fort Wayne. She is the daughter of Dr. Bruebach, of that city, who is a prominent physician in the enjoyment of an immense practice. Henry is well known here, also, and during his residence among us has made many warm and true friends. Connected with his brother, Edward, in the drug trade, during the time he has been a citizen of the place, he has conducted himself in such a manner as to win the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. The drug store having been disposed of, he closes his business career among us by taking unto himself a wife, and to-morrow the newly married pair will start for Boston, where Mr. Biewend will engage in business, and where he formerly resided for many years. We extend the heartiest congratulations to the newly married pair, but at the same time regret that in the disposition of events it was found necessary for them to remove from the goodly little 'tri-lake city.' We can only wish the newly united pair 'bon voyage.'"

An Aged Arkansas Clergyman, who has preached the gospel for forty years, has been greatly afflicted with kidney troubles. His case is such an obstinate one and his age is so great that that he cannot hope for absolute cure; but he writes from Richland that he has used three bottles of Brown's Iron Bitters, and adds, "I have felt more relief than from anything I have ever used." A lack of knowledge is what prevents many people from keeping well and strong. Once certain of a good medicine, it would be kept constantly on hand and much sickness would be avoided. There are many people who do not consider themselves sick enough to call in a doctor, and who suffer until a doctor is necessary. On the other hand there are thousands of families who knowing Pond's Extract is the great specific for all forms of inflammations, hemorrhages, boils, burns, and piles, and who keeping it at hand avoid loss of time, expense and sickness.

The Bond Bread.

A. J. Langhor has purchased the right and title to make and sell what is known to our citizens as "Bond's Bread." The old customers of the Bond bakery should understand that Mr. Langhor is the sole and only successor to Mr. Bond, and the only baker who makes the "Bond Bread," which has gained such an enviable reputation in this city. Be not deceived by any representation made by others, but leave your orders with Langhor Bakery, 142 Broadway, if you want the genuine Bond Bread. Goods delivered to all parts of the city. 18-1w
